

CARALEE LAMOUREUX

Biography

Caralee Lamoureux currently resides in Calgary Alberta, bringing with her over 20 years dance experience. Specializing in Contemporary, Jazz, Hip hop, Ballet, Tap and Acrobatics. She has studied under many master teachers from various dance institutions around the world, receiving certifications in the Adapt Syllabus and RAD. Working in the industry as a professional dancer, instructor and choreographer she has been recognized for her innovative work and award-winning performances all over Canada and the United States. Caralee has been a teacher at Airborne Dance Centre for over 10 years, her students have been the recipients of many overall awards/scholarships and have gone on to dance professionally on SYTYCD Canada, Music video's, TV series, movies and cruise ships.

Some of her dance credits include- Michael Bernard Fitzgerald, Paul Brandt, Sean Cheesman, Trish, the Breakfast Show for numerous local artist's, featured in a Bollywood movie and the L word, Numerous Gala events, Fashion shows, Events with former SYTYCD Canada alumni, En Corps Dance Collectives Company, O2 Dance Company, The Dance Company in Toronto, Princess cruise lines, Teaching master classes around Canada and many more.

Caralee believes that if you stay true to yourself, work hard and love what you do, success is sure to follow.